Democratic Conventions. The Call'of the State Democratic Executive Committee for Congressional District Conventions to Select Delegates to Represent the State in the Personatic National Convention, to be Held at St. Louis, Mo., on the 5th Day of June, 1888.

The State Democratic Executive Committee of West Virginia, at a meeting held at Parkersburg on March 20th, 1888, decided and ordered that Democratic Conventions be held in each of the Congressional Districts of the State at the time and place hereinafter named, to select three delegates each, one of whom in each of said Districts shall be a delegate at large, and also to select one alternate for each of said delegates, to represent the State in the Democratic National Convention to be held at St. Louis, Mo., on June 5th, 1888, and when they shall have been so selected they shall be duly accredited as delegates to represent this State in National Convention. And at said District Conventions each of the counties composing the several Congressional Districts shall be entitled to one vote therein for every one hundred votes, or fractional part thereof, over fifty, cast for the Democratic candidate for Governor of this State at the election held in 1884, and the various County Executive Committees are requested to take such action as may be necessary to have their County represented in said District Conventions. The Conventions will be held on Tuesday, May 8th, 1888.

Senator Faulkner's bill providing for the payment of claims growing out of the equipment and maintenance of military forces by West Virginia to act in co-operation with the Federal forces during the war will shortly be reported favorably.

A "dead-lock" in the House of Representatives on the Direct Tax bill, began on the 4th instant, and was kept up until last Thursday, when the Democrats succeeded in forcing an adjournment, much to the discomfiture of the Republican minority.
